Houses in Cambridge, 1686.

To the READER.

THis Catalogue of Books will be Expoſed to Sale for the Benefit of the Gentlemen of the Univerſity of Oxford, and as I muſt own their Favours formerly conferred on me, ſo at this time eſpecially publickly pay my acknowledgments to the worthy Heads of that famous and Celebrated Body of Learning, who have been pleaſed favourably to permit, and I hope will further, and promote the Sale thereof by Auction, A way ſo generally approved of in the City of London, and elſewhere ſufficiently Incouraged. It Conſiſts of all the Variety of my Books that I have at ſeveral times with great expence and no leſs care procured, which to Characteriſe would be endleſs. The Theological, Philological, Philoſophical, Mathematical Parts, &c. might be modeſtly recommended for the many Scarce and Uſeful Books that are Contained in them: but I leave all Perſons to Judge for themſelves and Conclude with this promiſe; that it ſhall be managed with all Fairneſs and (if poſſible) to a general Satisfaction, and though I am extremely ſenſible, that let my Friends be as kind as they pleaſe, I muſt be a conſiderable loſer in the Diſpoſal, Yet the ſingle conſideration that my Books will be diſperſed amongſt you and are Sold for your advantage perfectly expiates the ſenſe of it, and makes me chearfully ſubſcribe my Self, as

I really am, your Humble Servant,

Richard Davis.

This Sale will begin on Monday the 19th. of April, 1686. at Mr. Newman's Houſe over againſt St. Michaels-Church in Oxon, from the hour of Eight in the Morning to Eleven, and from One in the Afternoon to Five, continuing daily till all the Books are Sold.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids moſt, is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall be forthwith expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be pay'd by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the place where they are Sold; where, upon Payment thereof, the Book or Books ſhall be delivered for the Month aforeſaid.

IV. That all Gentlemen Buyers be pleaſed to give in their Names, and of what Colledges or Halls they belong to; to the end that every Perſon reſpectivly may have Juſtice done him, in the Buying, and alſo in the Delivery of the Books.

That

That the Books will be exposed to View daily from the Hours of Eight to Eleven in the Morning, and from Two to Six in the Evening, for one whole Week preceding the Sale.

That for the Conveniency of all Persons in the City of London, Cambridge and elsewhere, that please to send their Commissions containing the Page and Number in the Catalogue of the Books desired, with their Name and Place of abode, and where the Books are to be Delivered, and the Money Received, they shall be Managed Faithfully according to their Respective Orders.
